A rally on electoral awareness and the importance of voter's participation in democracy was organized by the Department of Political Science along with Systematic Voter's Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) club and Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) on 11 March 2024. The rally started after a formal address by Professor Sanjay Kumar Jasrotia and Dr. Manjeet Singh. The rally started from the college campus and covered the entire Nurpur town by raising slogans 'ghar ghar me sandesh do, vote do vote do' and 'loktantrame hissedari, ham sab ki hai jimmedari'. Feedback Audience Response The initial performance was held at the college, providing a platform for students to showcase their script and acting. After this, a medical instructor was invited to speak to the group, offering a more detailed understanding of Tuberculosis, its symptoms, prevention, and treatment. Under his guidance, the students made key changes to their performance, incorporating more accurate information and emphasizing the emotional and human aspects of the disease. The final performance took place at Chougan Bus Stand at Nurpur, where students gathered a diverse audience from the local community. They first engaged the crowd to build interest and curiosity. The performance was delivered with high energy, incorporating emotional storytelling that made the play both relatable and impactful. The combination of humour, emotions, and a clear message ensured the audience stayed engaged throughout the performance. According to the feedback from audience's response at Chougan Bus Stand was overwhelmingly positive. Many members of the crowd stayed back after the performance to discuss the topic further, asking questions and sharing their thoughts. The performance stirred conversations about TB, and many individuals commented on how the play helped dispel common myths about the disease. The emotional aspects of the performance struck a chord with many, creating a strong connection between the audience and the actors. The performance left a lasting, positive impact on the audience. Many people in the crowd expressed a newfound understanding of TB, its symptoms, and the importance of early treatment. The emotional and human-centred storytelling helped drive home the

	message that TB is preventable and treatable, provided proper care is sought early. The audience was successfully drawn in by the students. The team effectively gathered a large group before starting the play, ensuring the message reached a wide section of the public. The use of humour, relatable characters, and direct interaction with the audience kept people engaged and attentive throughout the performance. Recommendations 1. Continue Collaboration with Medical Experts: Future performances can benefit from ongoing collaboration with medical professionals to ensure the accuracy of health-related messages. 2. Explore More Public Venues: Performing in additional public spaces can broaden the reach and impact of these awareness campaigns. 3. Follow-up Events: Organizing follow-up events, such as health camps or informational sessions, in partnership with local health authorities, could provide more direct support to the community, such as TB screenings and treatments. This initiative by the Red Ribbon Club is highly commendable, and the students' dedication to raising awareness through art and performance is a valuable contribution to public health education in Nurpur.
4.	Special new innovative initiatives or Ideas Adopted in the College 1) E-Magazine Launch (Kaleidoscope: An e-view of College Activities) (Link) In the era of digital advancement, Government Arya Degree College has embarked on a pioneering initiative by launching Kaleidoscope (E-Magazine) dedicated to capturing and showcasing the diverse array of activities within the college community. This initiative aims to harness the power of technology to document, the various events, achievements, and initiatives undertaken by faculty, and staff members. The primary objective of introducing Kaleidoscope for college activities is to create a comprehensive and dynamic platform for capturing and promoting the vibrant life of the college. By documenting a wide range of activities, including academic events, cultural performances, sports competitions, and more, the Kaleidoscope seeks to foster a sense of pride, belonging, and engagement among the college community while also showcasing its achievements and contributions to a wider audience. The Kaleidoscope will be updated on a regular basis to	04/04	16/16

ensure that the latest activities and developments within the college are promptly documented and shared with the audience. This timely updating ensures that this magazine remains current, relevant, and engaging, thereby sustaining reader interest and participation. Through the Kaleidoscope, the college's activities, achievements, and contributions are effectively showcased and disseminated to a wider audience, thereby enhancing its visibility, reputation, and influence within the local community and beyond. This increased visibility attracts prospective students, faculty, and collaborators, thereby enriching the college ecosystem. 2) Computer Essentials Course: (Link) In response to the evolving landscape of education and the increasing demand for digital literacy skills, our college has taken a significant step forward by introducing a comprehensive 30-hour computer essentials course for students. This initiative aims to equip students with fundamental computer skills essential for success in academia, the workplace, and everyday life. Through hands-on training and interactive sessions, students are empowered to navigate digital tools and platforms with confidence. The course not only enhances employability prospects but also cultivates a tech-savvy mind-set crucial for success in the digital age. The primary objective of the computer essentials course is to bridge the digital divide by providing students with access to essential technological tools and knowledge. In a world increasingly reliant on digital technologies, proficiency in basic computer skills has become indispensable. By offering this course, the college seeks to empower its students to navigate the digital landscape with confidence and competence. 3) Basic computer Course for Non-teaching staff  Organized by: Government Arya Degree College, Nurpur  Duration: - 6 Days  Objective: To enhance computer skills and digital literacy among non-teaching employees of the college. The college principal Dr. Anil Kumar also accompanied the students. Under the guidance of Dr. Vipin Guleria, Associate Director of the research and training station, the Students learnt different techniques of grafting like side grafting, tongue grafting and clift grafting etc.	10/10	50/50

	They visited museum, soil testing laboratory, Vermicomposting units, polyhouses, vegetable farming, nurseries of floriculture, fruits bearing plants and other plants like herbs, shrubs and trees of medicinal importance/used in Ayurveda. Dr. Renu Kapoor, Incharge of soil testing laboratory interacted with the students and provided knowledge regarding working and utility of soil testing, micro and macronutrients in soil, soil pH, electrical conductivity, soil organic carbon and about the different instruments like flame photometer, spectrophotometer, Distillation apparatus and Atomic absorption spectrophotometer and other activities being carried out in the research station. Dr. Vipin Guleria acquainted the students with the knowledge of high density cultivation and about minimum expenditure/cost effective cultivation. He also guided the students regarding future career opportunities in the respective fields. The students also carried out grafting of some of the plants. Teacher incharges and students thanked the staff of RHRTS, Jachh for their cooperation. Activity-2: Visit and Workshop at Sub-divisional Community Fruit Processing and Training Centre, Department of Horticulture, Nurpur A workshop was organized on the methods of preparing pickles, jam, squash, chutney and other related items for the B.Sc. students at the Community Fruit Processing and Training Centre, Horticulture Department, Nurpur on 9th April 2024. This workshop was organized under the chairmanship of the Principal of the college, Dr. Anil Kumar Thakur and supervised by teachers of the Chemistry Botany and Zoology department. About 30 medical and non-medical students of the Science Department participated in this workshop. ### Department of Political Science

Government Arya Degree College Nurpur (Kangra)

Course and Program Outcomes

The course's goal is to provide students with the ideas, theories, concepts, and trends they need to support their career choices and job opportunities. The goal of the course is to mold the students' perspective and understanding of the political and socioeconomic environments that exist in both the east and the west. In order to better prepare students for life's various problems, the course also aims to hone their analytical skills and decision-making talents. In general, political science focuses on three primary course categories

- The DSC and DSE Courses
- The SKILL Courses
- The GENERIC Courses

Political theory and topics, Indian government and politics, comparative politics, and international relations are the primary DSC and DSE subjects being taught.

Political Theory and Themes: Presenting political theory (Introduction to Political Theory- B.A. 1st Year) and themes (Themes in Comparative Political Theory- B.A. 3rd Year) to the students, outlining its methods and background, and evaluating its modern and critical tendencies Theory enables students to differentiate between various types of political science inquiry and systematic normative investigation. Every notion has a relationship to an important political issue that needs to be analyzed using our conceptual knowledge. The capacity to name the key figures in contemporary Western political philosophy and to justify their significance is imparted to students. By applying political theorists' theories to current social situations, it develops in students the capacity to translate abstract theory into real-world issues.
